COVID-19: THE RESEARCHERS' PERSPECTIVE

Join a conversation with scientists leading the fight against COVID-19.

Sanford Burnham Prebys Medical Discovery Institute is pleased to invite you to a live online conversation with scientists leading the COVID-19 efforts here in San Diego and beyond. We will address topics like:

- Current state of the global pandemic
- Promising drug therapies & treatment pathways
- Sanford Burnham Prebys role in paving the way for the future

MODERATOR
Andrea Davison

Philanthropy

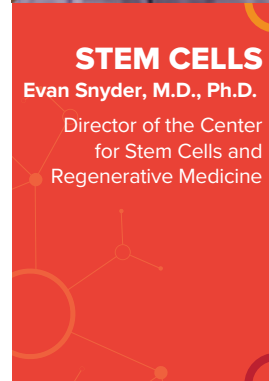

This is a special event for Sanford Burnham Prebys supporters and friends. We are delighted to offer this exclusive opportunity to engage with the region's experts on immunity and regenerative medicine. Following comments from our scientists, we will open the conversation to Q&A.
